

Kelly Falcone-Hall,
President & CEO, WRHS

The Western Reserve Historical Society (WRHS) has been serving as Northeast Ohio's trusted cultural and historical storyteller since 1867. History happens every day, and WRHS is proud to have continued to document the rich stories of Northeast Ohio throughout fiscal year 2021 - 2022. Although FY22 was a challenging one as we and the rest of the world continued to grapple with the impacts of Covid-19, WRHS continued to create opportunities for audiences of all ages to explore, celebrate, experience and preserve the history of our region.

In fiscal year 2021-2022, many experiences highlighted the exciting diversity of our region and collections including:

- › The reopening of the WRHS Library to the public on October 7th, thanks to generous support from the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Foundation.
- › Educational programming continuing in person and online to thousands of students.
- › The continuing celebration of the 50th anniversary of the African American Archives and their auxiliary with yearlong programming.
- › The Year of The Motorcycle series, presented by Progressive and Dan T. Moore, in the Crawford Auto-Aviation Museum.
- › The return of the popular Made in Ohio Art & Craft Festival, which featured over 150 vendors and attracted 10,500 visitors to Hale Farm & Village over Labor Day weekend.
- › The inaugural Native American Cultural Weekend at Hale Farm & Village, an all-new celebration of the rich histories and cultures of Native peoples from our region and the state of Ohio, past and present.
- › Joining Ohio as we celebrated the 100th anniversary of the 19th amendment granting suffrage to women at The Ohio Statehouse in Columbus.
- › The donation to WRHS of the Karl A. Staley House Collection, the architectural collection for the house designed by Frank Lloyd Wright in North Madison, Ohio.

WRHS's strides during FY22 and our ongoing work to assess and apply best practices to the stewardship of WRHS's buildings, property, and collections could not have been accomplished without our dedicated team of staff, Board, stakeholders, partners, and community.

Thank you!

THANK YOU

WRHS is grateful to work with over 100 talented and enthusiastic volunteers and interns. In FY2022 our volunteers and interns donated over 9,500 hours of their time to WRHS! From tending to our gardens at Hale Farm & Village to assisting with collections and archives at the Cleveland History Center, they are a vital part of our organization and help further our mission of inspiring people to discover the American experience by exploring the tangible history of Northeast Ohio. Thank you to our invaluable volunteers and interns!
